IMPERIALISM AND COLONIZATION

This episode features the motives of European nations for sailing uncharted seas in search of new lands as sources of raw materials and markets for their finished products. Inequality and abuse of power are discussed as the colonized people are oppressed and their lands squandered by the colonizers. Sadly, the same thing is happening in the Philippines – Mindanao provides much produce and income for the whole economy but only gets a meager share in the budget allocation of the government.

GLOBALIZATION

This episode explains how the world has become smaller and smaller as nations become more and more connected especially through economic ties. Unfortunately though, it resulted in more injustices and discrimination toward poor countries by wealthier and more technologically advanced economies. Same circumstance seems to have become part of our culture which active student groups denounce and have been fighting against, for years now.
